4. The President shall by proclamation fix a day, being a day not later than 6th October, 1980, for the coming into operation of the Constitution.

Exercise of powers of Parliament before appointed day.

Principles for the Establishment of Commissions

Principles for the establishment of Commissions

212FF The Standing Committee for Constitutional Reform shall, in addition to its functions under article 119A, continually review the operations of and the need for existing commissions and for the establishment of new commissions, applying the following considerations

(a) the issues to be addressed by a commission must be of national interest or affect a wide cross-section of the populace;

(b) there could be disastrous consequences for the society and the country at large if the issues are not attended to and monitored;

(c) there is the assessment that it is important that political interference be eschewed in relation to the issues to be addressed;

(d) the operating procedures and mechanisms for choosing the members of a commission are such as would minimise the influence of the Executive and maximise public perception of impartiality in the operations of the commission;

(e) accordance with the need for efficiency and cost-effectiveness, commissions should be kept small and be staffed by persons of appropriate skill and experience;

(f) where commissions, especially those of a protective nature as opposed to administrative commissions, are established to address similar issues, the limitations of human and financial resources should be considered and common secretariats should be established.

GUYANA NATIONAL ANTHEM

Green Land of Guyana, our heroes of yore,
Both bondsmen and free, laid their bones on your shore;
This soil so they hallowed, and from them are we
All sons of one mother, Guyana the free.

Great Land of Guyana, diverse though our strains,
We are born of their sacrifice, heirs of their pains;
And ours is the glory their eyes did not see -
One land of six peoples, united and free.

Dear Land of Guyana, to you will we give
Our homage, our service, each day that we live
God guard you, great Mother, and make us to be More worthy our heritage - land of the free.

THE NATIONAL PLEDGE

I pledge myself to honour always the flag of Guyana, and to be loyal to my country, to be obedient to the laws of Guyana, to love my fellow citizens, and to dedicate my energies towards the happiness and prosperity of Guyana.
