

Joel C. Spangenberg Director of Selective Service (acting)

Mr. Joel C. Spangenberg, a senior appointee of the Biden-Harris Administration and member of the Senior Executive Service, serves as the Acting Director of Selective Service. In this role, he leads national conscription readiness, overseeing the National Headquarters, Data Management Center, and three site offices consisting of civil servants, military reservists, and over 6,000 volunteers. Previously, he served in senior career roles as the first-ever Executive Director of Operations at the Defense Nuclear Facilities Safety Board, Deputy Associate Administrator for External Affairs at the National Nuclear Security Administration (NNSA), and Associate Director of Governmental Affairs at Naval Reactors.

During the Obama-Biden administration, Mr. Spangenberg served as Chief of Staff at the Selective Service System (SSS) and Special Assistant to the Deputy Secretary of the U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs. Before that, he worked in the U.S. Senate as a Subcommittee Deputy Staff Director and Professional Staff Member, where he led national and homeland security legislative efforts. His key volunteer positions in the community have included Chairman of Congresswoman Eleanor Holmes Norton's Service Academy Selection Board, SSS Local Board Member of the District of Columbia (D.C.), and Vice Chairman of the D.C. Mayor's Advisory Board on Veterans Affairs. Mr. Spangenberg is a Fellow of the National Academy of Public Administration, Member of the American Nuclear Society, Member of the Senior Executives Association, and a former Term Member of the Council on Foreign Relations. Additionally, he is a Certified Defense Financial Manager with Acquisition Specialty.

Mr. Spangenberg is a veteran of the U.S. Navy, where he served as a Surface Warfare Officer (Nuclear). He was assigned to the destroyer USS ROSS (DDG 71), deploying in support of Operation Enduring Freedom following the 9/11 terrorist attacks. He also served on the aircraft carrier USS ABRAHAM LINCOLN (CVN 72) and deployed to the Western Pacific. His final Navy assignment was Regional Program Director for Training and Readiness (N7) to Commandant, Naval District Washington. Mr. Spangenberg's civilian and military decorations include the NNSA Administrator's Distinguished Service Silver Award, SSS Distinguished Service Award (Gold Medal), Department of Defense Meritorious Service Medal, Navy Achievement Medal (two awards), National Defense Service Medal, Global War on Terrorism Expeditionary Medal, Global War on Terrorism Service Medal, and Humanitarian Service Medal.

Mr. Spangenberg graduated with Distinction from the U.S. Naval Academy with a Bachelor of Science degree in Systems Engineering and was a four-year member of the men's heavyweight rowing team. He is also a graduate of the U.S. Naval War College, where he earned a Master of Arts in National Security and Strategic Studies. Additionally, Mr. Spangenberg completed master's degrees in engineering management at Old Dominion University and in administrative leadership at the University of Oklahoma, and he is also a graduate of the U.S. Air War College's Senior Developmental Education program.
